

Tea & Make at V&A Friday Late.
Stitched Up. 30th April. 6.30-10pm.

.....

Come and join Tea & Make and friends for an evening Garden Party with a twist... Needles at the ready for an evening exploring all things stitched to celebrate The V&A's 'Quilts 1700-2010' exhibition!

Finders Keepers Records' Doug Shipton presents...An inspiring yet relaxed folk soundtrack for the evening.

heart zeena presents... Patchwork Keepsake - create your very own patchwork square.

Kenn Munk & Annabelle Hartmann present... A Monster For London - patch together a paper-finger-puppet-monster.

Barbara Frankie Ryan presents... Sketch-a-thread - thread a colourful cross-stitch-style pattern.

Clare Thornton presents... Girl Racer - an interactive sewing contest.

ALSO: Weave your way through our GIANT LOOM, add to our 'live' BUNTING as it grows in length throughout the night, launch and set sail one our chic patterned PAPER BOATS on The V&A's pond; and take a seat, eat some cake and finger knit or make a fabric shape brooch from our TABLE-TOP CRAFT BOXES.

www.teaandmake.co.uk
www.teaandmake.blogspot.com